1. Mr. Proctor passed on the DCI's and Secretary Kissinger's compliments on the China paper prepared by OPR.

2. The DCI is considering sending an OSR "road show" to selected US overseas commands to brief senior officers on certain military subjects.

3. Mr. Proctor asked that each Office Director pay special attention to the dissemination of intelligence memoranda and reports that go to high-level officials. The idea is to make certain that only senior officials who really have an interest in the subject receive copies.

4. The female caucus members of Congress will be going to China in the fall. They have requested briefings on the political situation and OCI will arrange.

5. Admiral Inman has been named to be the new Director of the Office of Naval Intelligence replacing Admiral Rectanus.

6. Mr. Walsh announced that OJCS is re-establishing the Computer Users Group. All offices are requested to phone names of their representative to the Chief, Executive Staff by COB today.

7. OER has been asked by the White House to prepare answers to possible questions on economic matters that might be raised at President Ford's press conference now scheduled for Tuesday.
